Weekly Newsletter –12th Feb 2016

We have now come to the end of the Spring term. Some real success this half term with parent workshops and so many parents attending the parents evening this week. With the half term ahead this will give us all time to recharge ready for Spring 2 on the 22nd Feb 2016. Please note that this is not a teacher day.

Year 4 visit at Aston Villa.

Children in EYFS having a great time in the huge sand area.

Year 5 pupils in Gymnastic learning how to balance

National Outstanding Award 2014

Praise from your teachers.

RR Jacob has done some super writing on the Bear Hunt this week!	RJ All of RJ have worked really well together in learning about the Chinese New Year!	1M Well done Mekhi for some great work in phonics –Keep it up!
1S Martyna you have done some excellent writing in English! Keep it up.	2W Well done to Andrei for always being so polite, cheerful, listening and trying his best.	2L Awad—You are trying so hard in your handwriting lesson! Super improvement
3C Well done to David for completing and checking his writing to make improvements.	3S Great forces and Magnets homework from Lillie Richards.	Y4 Well done Kairo for your amazing work in English about eagles and species.
Y5 I was very impressed by Yusuf’s map of a flooded England. Everything was to scale and he has used the compass points accurately.	Y6 (Mr Warner) Oliver really impressed me with his play setting description using his five sense, expanded noun phrases and adverbs.	Y6 (Miss Whitehouse) Jadah wrote an amazing letter in geography. Explaining the threats and solutions to biodiversity.
