

This week's story is "Aliens love underpants" by Claire Freedman.

Activity: Guess the alien

Let's play a game. Choose an alien from below. Now think about how you will describe it to your grown-up. See if they can find the alien you are describing. You could make it really tricky and not use any colour words! What words will you use to describe each one?

