Tuesday – Reading

1) Why does the Bad-tempered ladybird want to fight the Friendly one?

He wants to fight because he wants to keep all the aphids for himself. He doesn't want to share.

2) Why do you think the Bad-tempered ladybird doesn't really want to fight the stag beetle?

I think the Bad-tempered ladybird is actually a little bit scared to fight the Stag Beetle because of his jaws.

3) Which animal is your favourite that the ladybird comes across? Explain why.

You cannot be wrong here. Any animal and explanation is correct.

4) How do we know that Bad-tempered ladybird is confused by the whale?

We know he is confused because he tries to talk to it's fin and it's flipper.

5) Why is the word SLAP in capital letters on slide 26?

It is in capital letters to tell the reader to say it in a different (loud) voice. (To tell the reader to emphasise this word)

6) What has the Bad-tempered ladybird learnt in the story?

The bad-tempered lady bird has learnt to not fight and to be kind and share.

Wednesday – Boxing up the story

| | | |
|---------|---|--|
| Opening | Introduce the Main Character and the situation. | The Bad-Tempered Ladybird flies in from the right and spots the aphids on a leaf. |
| Build | Character flaw is revealed | The Bad-Tempered Ladybird is greedy and wants to keep all the aphids. He wants to fight the friendly lady bird. |
| Problem | The flaw leads the Main Character into trouble | The Bad-Tempered Ladybird flies around offering to fight all the creatues. Eventually, he asks a huge whale who uses its tail to hit him very hard. |

| | | |
|------------|--|--|
| Resolution | Main Character learns a lesson and changes their ways. | The Bad-tempered lady bird gets back to the leaf. The friendly ladybird is kind and offers him some aphids. He realises he was wrong and says thank you. |
| Ending | All is well for the future because of the change | The ladybirds go to sleep and the fireflies come out to dance around as usual. |
