

Challenge 1: Match these words to their meanings.

Marvellous
Disobedience
Medicine
Beckon
Pondering

Something that is wonderful and great.

A mixture used to treat illness and disease.

Thinking very carefully.

Call someone over using a signal like a wave or a whistle.

Not following the rules. You do not obey your elders.

Challenge 2: Read these sentences. Have our new words been used properly? Do they make sense?

- 1) My Mum was beckoning me over to show me the fish in the pond.
- 2) Mum was proud of me. She said "Well done for putting your shoes away you disobedient child!".
- 3) I always have two lumps of medicine in my tea.

Challenge 3: Use our new words correctly in new sentences of your own.