

1a. Underline the determiner in the sentence below.

After football he had some cola.

1b. Sort the determiners into the table below by deciding if they could be used before the given noun.

Could be used	Could not be used

Noun: pears

Determiners: a, an, the, my, your, some

2a. Write a different noun for each of the following determiners:

Quantifying determiner:

some _____

Article:

a _____

Possessive determiner:

my _____

2b. Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ toast is cooked perfectly.

His

Few

A

3a. Find and explain the determiner which is used incorrectly in the passage below.

The old man gazed out at the wide ocean. He sighed as he looked at an distant lighthouse.

3b. Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

_____ ant

_____ pear

4a. Sort the determiners into the table below by deciding if they could be used before the given noun.

Could be used	Could not be used

Noun: ship

Determiners: a, an, the, my, your, some, their

4b. Circle the correct quantifying determiner for the sentence below.

Here are (a/some) pears.

