

The sticker chart had a remarkable _____ on the toddler's behaviour.	whose	I have a fish _____ name is Jaws.	The cold wintry _____ made Lauren want to stay in the house.	whether	Move back two squares	The family couldn't decide _____ to move house.	allowed	Move back two squares
weather	Mr Whoops' Homophone Spelling Game  You'll need: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- different coloured counters</li> <li>- a die</li> <li>- Paper and a pen</li> </ul> If you land on a square with a homophone word, you must write a sentence containing that word or move back to where you came from. If you land on a square with a sentence, you must write down the homophone that is missing or move back to where you came from. First player to the finish line is the winner!  							The proud student went on stage to _____ his certificate.
George's terrible cold did not _____ his performance in the football match.								affect
who's								Miss a turn!
except								effect
	aloud	Miss a turn! 	Everyone had a present under the tree _____ for the dog.	The naughty pupil wasn't _____ out at playtime.	accept	The group performed their poem _____ to the class.	Move back two squares	"_____ is the coat on the floor?" said the teacher.