Weekly School Newsletter

26th May 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Another half term has flown by – and what a busy half term it has been! Today, we have ended the half term with lots of celebrations and excitement. Keep reading to find out more!

School dinners Sum2

School dinners cost £2.55 per day

School meal every day £89.25 per week

Thursday (pizza) £17.85 for the half term

Year 6 Showcase

On Wednesday, the Year 6 parents were given the performance of a lifetime when their Year 6 children performed: “When words fail, music speaks” showcase. There was amazing singing as well as duets and solos on the keyboards. Well done, Year 6!

Attendance Shop

Those children who have achieved 96% or higher for the Sum1 half term were awarded with a treat from the attendance shop! Well done to those children and big thanks to all parents who support excellent attendance.

Pegasus is the winning house for Sum1!

A huge well done to Pegasus, who won the house competition with the most house points for Sum1! This afternoon, the Pegasus children enjoyed an ice cream treat on the field with all of their Pegasus house mates! A perfect treat for a hot sunny day!

Year 5 Design and Technology

Year 5 have been busy in their DT lessons making movable CAM products all about the solar system! Just look at how good they are! Great job, Year 5!
