Weekly School Newsletter

21st January 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week, we have had a high number of COVID-related absence in school. These include pupils and staff absences. As you know through the televised news, all schools have found it difficult to get supply teachers to cover classes; we too have experienced the same.

My thanks to the fantastic colleagues at Featherstone where they have helped and supported to cover classes. This has helped greatly in the running of the school and with no need to split classes in to smaller groups.

In additional to this, the office staff have also managed to get all the information from the high number of COVID cases, so that this information can be passed on to public health. Let's hope that next week things are better for all schools.

Parents' evening

This term, parents' evening will be carried through phone consultation; a letter is on its way to you so that you are able to book a slot to speak to you child's class teacher.

Have good weekend.

From Mr. E. Gaibee
Headteacher
