Weekly Newsletter 3rd Dec 2018 (Value of the month: Honesty)

Dear Parents / Carers

This Month's value is 'Honesty' - please can you reinforce this at home so that we have your support.

Bullying Concerns and online monitoring. All staff closely monitor signs of bullying in school and any incidents of bullying are stamped out immediately. In the event of any incidents of bullying, teachers and all staff rapidly address this through class discussions and educating the children by encouraging positive relationships and the use of strategies to resolve or defuse issues. All staff (teachers, teaching assistants and dinner staff) are trained to spot signs of bullying (including e-safety).

At Featherstone Primary we have an e-safety monitoring system which allows for all internet usage in school to be monitored. Any pages visited by the user which are inappropriate are immediately flagged and this is then followed through by a Designated Person (DSL). In most cases we have found that this is usually low level and just requires to give the children a gentle reminder about internet rules. All of our children are aware of this monitoring, know the rules and also how to report any concerns that they may have. Throughout school posters are visible in corridors and in classrooms so that children know who to go if they have a worry. We have found that our children are exceptionally confident in knowing who to go and talk to if they have a concern, or would just like a chat!

This term Mr Silvester has spoken to the children regarding online bullying and how they can report a concern. We have also arranged for the CPSO to visit all classes to talk to children about bullying and the impact of this.

In our most recent pupil voice survey (Nov 2018) 100% of pupils said that they know who to talk to in school if they feel they are being bullied.

CPSO Oates and Khan who came to talk to the Year 3 children about bullying.
